

Aragati Seba Sangstha

Establish education institution for rural children

Mainstream education is one of the major focused areas of the organization. ASS is implementing different educational activities in its operational areas.

Jangua Noakandi is a village of Narayanpur Union under Narsingdi district, where educational facilities especially at the higher secondary level were scarce. Therefore, many students especially girls were not in a position to have secondary education. As a result, a significant number of students would drop out after completion of primary education, and the girls were the worse sufferers who had to stop their study forever and embrace the fate of early marriage. Under these circumstances ASS took initiative to established a school in the same village.

Apart of this initiative ASS shared with village elite and social worker and taking cooperation specially financial support and established “ Jangua Noakandi Adorsha Biddaloy”. In 2017. The school’s expenditure is being bearded by joint venture with local community.

At present 250 students in them male 130 and female 120 are studying in this school. The teacher number is 10 where male 5 and female 7.

Goal

Quality of education and learners' entrance to primary and secondary education will be enhanced in Narayanpur Union under Belabo Upazila of Narsingdi district.

Objectives

- To ensure enrollment of the learners especially of the girls in primary and secondary high school.
- To reduce dropout rate of the children completing primary education.

To raise capacity of the educational institution in regard to ensuring quality education and fund mobilization