

Aragati Seba Sangstha

Tree plantation for environment protection

Tree Plantation is an important activity of Aragati Seba Songstha (ASS. Through this activity it provides technical support to the beneficiaries on plantation and planting sapling and some extend provides quality fruits and timbers sapling to them for homestead plantation in the year 2009.

Major activities are given below:

- Awareness raising on environment and afforestation
- Assist beneficiaries to get quality seed and sapling
- Link beneficiaries to the government and nongovernment regarding service providers
- Provide training on plantation
- Loan support to target people for plantation

ASS has distributed total 2500 fruits and timber saplings among the beneficiaries. ASS has a plan for provide technical support and training to beneficiaries on grafting and budding for improvement of local and low quality of fruits trees.